

McDONOUGH ENGINEERING CORPORATION
Civil Engineers

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Senior Site Design Civil Engineer (8+ years experience)
Location: Galleria Area, Houston
Salary: Highly Competitive
Typical Assignment: Site development for public and private sector clients

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- Degree Required: B.S. Civil Engineering
- Licensed Texas Professional Engineer
- Experience Desired: 8+ years minimum in site work design

JOB REQUIREMENTS

- Extensive civil design experience in site development projects involving site layout and design, utilities, paving, grading and site drainage
- Experience preparing earthwork calculations and quantity take-off reports as well as storm water calculations
- Prepare construction plans, design calculations, specifications, bid documents and cost estimates
- Knowledge of local and state design standards and procedures
- Strong professional work ethic; positive attitude and strong leadership skills; capable of working independently or managing a design team
- Excellent communication skills with project team, government agencies and clients
- Ability to efficiently utilize time in completing tasks accurately, on schedule and within budget
- Preferred experience with AutoCAD software and MS office software

McDonough Engineering has established a reputation for providing quality professional design services that are responsive to our clients for over 37 years. As we expand our area of service we intend on continuing to hire exceptional civil engineering design professionals. McDonough Engineering is an equal opportunity employer and provides all employees with a competitive compensation and benefits package.